Why Support One of Our Events?

Community Resource Center is the primary provider of social services in the North County Coastal area, and its events and programs receive considerable publicity throughout the County. Our community support base is unparalleled among non-profit organizations in North County. In fact, more than 200 organizations continuously support a Community Resource Center program or event, and over 2,000 individual volunteers choose to dedicate their time and talents to what we do.

Organization Profile

Community Resource Center, North County San Diego's only comprehensive Social Services and Domestic Violence agency, provides critical services for over 7,500 individuals annually. Community Resource Center services include the following:

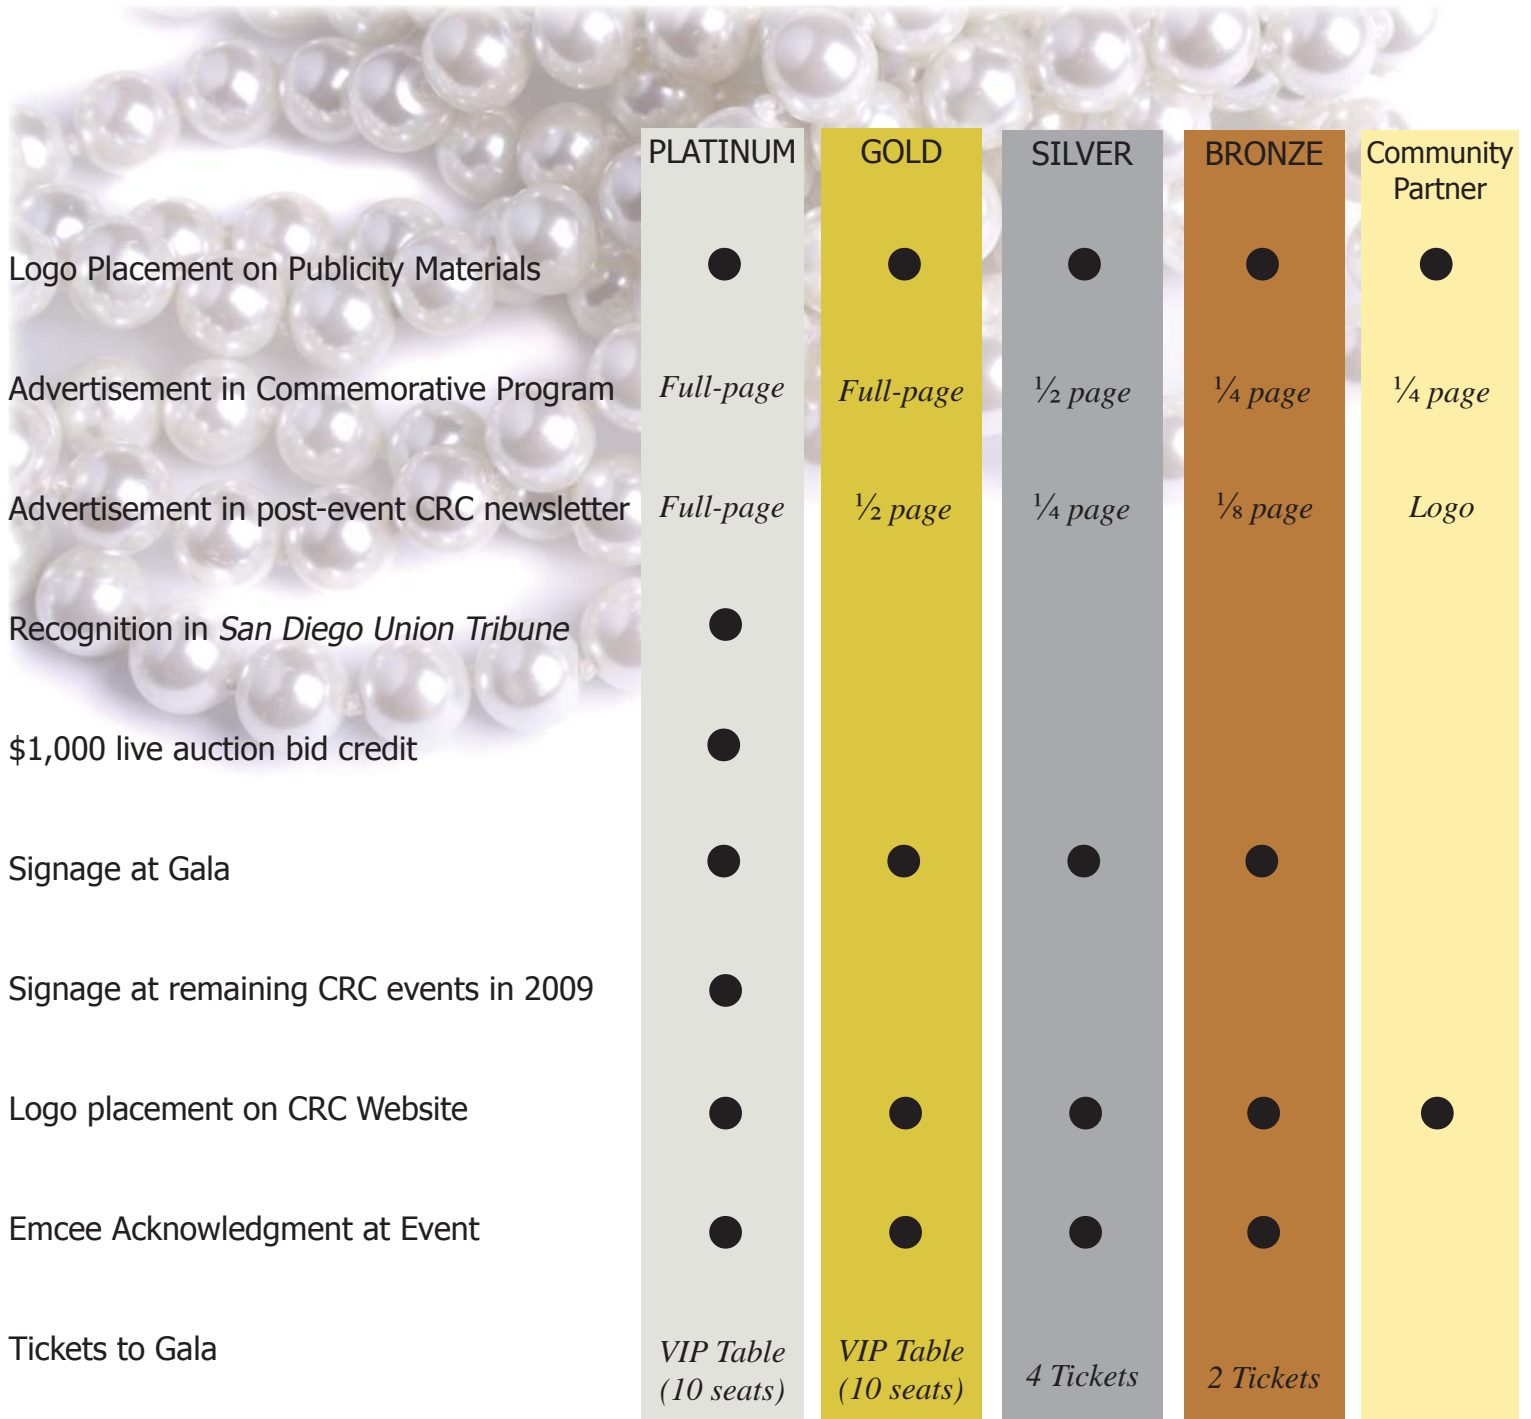

- Carol's House, a 24-bed Domestic Violence Emergency Shelter
- Transitional Housing & Services for domestic violence survivors
- Therapeutic Services for Children traumatized by domestic violence
- Comprehensive Food Programs
- Homeless Prevention and Intervention
- Financial Literacy Programs and Employment Preparation Assistance

Community Resource Center follows the guiding principle that every person deserves the opportunity to live independent and violence-free lives. Our programs provide SAFETY, STABILITY, and a path to SELF-SUFFICIENCY.
